

Social Media Use Policy for Volunteers

Social networking is quickly becoming integrated into everyday life. Electronic tools aid us in communication, relationships, and information sharing in ways that were never before conceived as possible. The use of social media and networking often also causes lines to blur between work, personal life, and church relationships. In general, what you do in your personal time is a personal decision. However, activities during or outside of volunteer work that are shared via social media may have adverse effects on your job performance, leadership ability, and witness of Jesus Christ, and need to be considered carefully. By simply identifying yourself as a volunteer of Calvary United Methodist Church, either directly or as a part of your user profile, you are creating perceptions about what it means to be a part of Calvary United Methodist Church. As such, this policy is offered to provide official guidelines for social media use for all volunteers of Calvary United Methodist Church. It is the expectation that all who participate in social media use will understand and follow these guidelines.

As a child of God, a member of the church universal, and as a volunteer of Calvary United Methodist Church, I covenant and agree to use Facebook and other similar social media in ways that bring honor to God and show respect for self and for all others who might view my posts.
